

The documentary festival that opened last night aims to satisfy moviegoers' hunger for honest looks at the world and the people in it. Besides the films, discussions and debates are on the schedule

Cinema that reaches for verity

COURTESY OF THE RIDM

The documentary festival's opening-night film was Roger Toupin, épicier variété, by Montrealer Benoit Pilon. It's scheduled to screen again on Wednesday.